STOP BIG TECH FROM KILLING LOCAL JOURNALISM

More than 2,500 local newspapers shuttered since 2004, leaving many Californians without a credible source of information.

THE CALIFORNIA JOURNALISM PRESERVATION ACT

AB 886

IS CRITICAL TO PRESERVING DEMOCRACY

- ✓ Requires Big Tech to compensate news outlets for use of their content
- ✓ 70% of collected funds are reinvested back into newsrooms
- ✓ Local journalists continue to preserve democracy and expose corruption
