ATASCADERO CITY COUNCIL

COUNCILMAN
MARK DARIZ:
FOCUSED ON THE ISSUES THAT MATTER

Homelessness

Mark has supported partnerships with non-profits like ECHO to make sure we have a place for those experiencing homelessness to go. Mark believes in a compassionate approach that provides those in need with safe shelter, mental healthcare, and addiction services.

Housing Affordability

Mark has worked to solve the housing affordability crisis by approving new housing opportunities for all income levels. Mark has used his experience as an architect to help ensure the city is doing its part to provide affordable workforce and middle-income housing.

ENDORSED BY THE SAN LUIS OBISPO TRIBUNE

"Architect Mark Dariz brings many years of government service to the table: He's served one term on the City Council and, before that, 10 years on the Planning Commission. He's a realist; he's proud of what the city has accomplished, while recognizing that there's more to do. The Tribune Editorial Board strongly endorses Mark Dariz for Atascadero City Council."
